Agency Overview

Central Australian Women's Legal Service delivers a holistic, culturally safe, trauma informed intensive service model across the Central Australia & Barkly regions.

At CAWLS we aspire for a future where women and their children are safe, living with dignity and respect. Our purpose is to help women in Central Australia and the Barkly Regions with their legal matters and other inter-connected issues; providing legal assistance, community legal education, and specialised support services for those affected by domestic violence.

CAWLS operates two Commonwealth funded Specialist Domestic Violence Units/Health Justice Partnerships based in Alice Springs and Tennant Creek. Through these units, CAWLS provides ongoing education and training for health service providers assisting them to identify and respond to disclosures of family violence.

Our objectives are:

- To provide free and confidential legal assistance and wrap-around support;
- To increase legal literacy and understanding through the provision of legal education;
- To enable professionals to identify, support and refer victims of domestic violence to appropriate services;
- To advocate for law and policy reform seeking changes beneficial to our clients.

CAWLS is funded by the Commonwealth Attorney-General's Department, the National Indigenous Australians Agency and the Northern Territory Government.

Primary Objectives

The primary objectives of the role are;

- To provide legal advice, representation and referrals to clients in domestic and family violence and family law matters for clients who are patients or clients at a range of health service providers in Central Australia and the Barkly;
- To assist with the promotion of health justice partnerships, increase use and accessibility of the legal service and improve integration of that service with other patient care services;
- To contribute to the development and maintenance of relationships within the health partnership setting;
- To provide legal advice, representation and referrals to clients accessing CAWLS drop-in service and clinics appointments.
- To work with the CAWLS Management Team for the overall success of the service and assist CAWLS to fulfil all obligations pursuant to funding agreements ensuring the service is compliant with all regulatory bodies.

Key Duties

Legal Advice and Casework Service

- Provide high quality legal advice and representation within CAWLS areas of practice and guidelines with a particular focus on domestic & family violence, family law and child protection matters.
- Maintain a caseload under direction of the Practice Manager.
- Respond to on call requests for legal advice through the Health Justice Partnership (within business hours).
- Represent clients at the local court, in the Federal Circuit court and other tribunals as necessary and to assist with the provision of duty lawyer services.
- Assist clients with appropriate referrals to other services and agencies when necessary.
- Undertake CLE activities and outreach to provide legal advice and representation to women in remote communities as required.
- Occasional travel to Tennant Creek and other outreach locations may be required.
- Undertake and/or participate in policy and law reform as required.
- Contribute to the development and maintenance of relationships within the health partnership setting.
- Support other staff, particularly when they are out of office, by taking responsibility for their files.
- Work collaboratively with a multidisciplinary team to provide legal information and guidance and consult with other staff to provide appropriate non-legal referrals as required.
- Other duties as delegated by the Senior Management team.

Administration

- Maintain effective file management systems and internal quality assurance procedures consistent with the administrative systems, procedures and policies of the service to ensure collection of relevant data and statistics and provide reports to the CAWLS Management team.
- Ensure all legal service data collection is accurate, comprehensive and informs practice and advocacy.

General

- Undertake training/professional development in consultation with the Practice Manager.
- Ensure compliance with CAWLS policies and procedures.
- Participate in regular staff and supervision meetings and annual performance appraisal.

- Monitor and evaluate areas of responsibility in line with performance review and the Centre's organisational planning and provide written reports as requested.
- Maintain a teamwork approach at all times.
- Other relevant duties as directed.
