About Justice Support Centre

Justice Support Centre is a not for profit community legal centre.

Our legal services include information, advice and legal representation for people in South West Sydney whose access to justice is denied or constrained, and includes specialised legal services for victim-survivors of DFV.

Our DFV services include court support and advocacy, safety planning, case management and financial counselling.

Both the legal and DFV teams offer tailored training and workshops to community members and community organisations.

We give our clients the guidance, legal advice, support services and strength they need to claim their rights, know their options and choose their next steps.

About the role

This role joins a team of dedicated solicitors in a community legal centre that promotes access to justice for those disadvantaged by their social and economic circumstances and provides the opportunity for rewarding and constructive engagement on professional and community levels.

We are seeking a senior solicitor with a commitment to social justice, and in-depth experience in the Focus Areas of law. Your experience with Victims Support claims, Domestic Violence and family law mediations, will also be highly regarded.

You must hold a current NSW Law Society Practising Certificate and be able to use your own vehicle for work when required.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are strongly encouraged to apply.

Closing Date: 9am, Monday 6th March 2023

Contact Person: Enquiries about the role should be emailed to Alison Shave,
