7. ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BOARD

The responsibilities of the Board include:

- focusing on what the organisation is trying to achieve and the values it will operate by
- understanding the Centre's purpose and ensuring that the organisation's directions are in line with its purpose and values
- setting clear strategic directions for the Centre
- ensuring that the strategic plan for the organisation is achievable and within the organisation's resourcing and capacities
- ensuring sustainable continuous improvement
- identifying opportunities
- shared commitment
- guiding the organisation's progress and keeping on track towards the future vision for the Centre
- establishing an effective policy framework to guide its work, implement its goals and meet its obligations
- ensuring the organisation has competent Board and personnel
- establishing adequate internal controls to ensure sound financial management, risk management and legal compliance
- establishing adequate internal accountability mechanisms and to monitor organisational performance.

In carrying out its governance role the Board should focus on the Centre's strategic direction and core policies of the organisation and should avoid becoming involved in the day-to-day operations of the Centre.

Overall management of the Centre's day to day operations is delegated to the Centre's Chief Executive Officer (CEO), with the Board providing direction through policy and oversight for the Centre's CEO who implements decisions of the Board.

8. BOARD MEMBER EXPECTATIONS

The following is expected of you should your application as a Board Member at Cairns Community Legal Centre Inc be successful:

• Read, understand, and comply with Board and organisational policies.

- The Board meets 6-weekly for a 1.5 hour meeting and the Chair will follow up with members absent for more than two consecutive meetings.
- Board papers are posted 5-7 days prior to the meeting, and it is expected that papers are read, and that Board members are prepared to actively participate and contribute to discussions.
- The Board must decide how a meeting is to be called.
- Notice of a meeting is to be given in the way decided by the Board.
- The Board may hold meetings, or permit a Board member to take part in its meetings, by using any technology that reasonably allows the member to hear and take part in discussions as they happen.
- A Board member who participates in the meeting as mentioned above is taken to be present at the meeting.
- A question arising at a Board meeting is to be decided by a majority vote of members of the Board present at the meeting and, if the votes are equal, the question is decided in the negative.
- A member of the Board must not vote on a question about a contract or proposed contract with the association if the member has an interest in the contract or proposed contract and, if the member does vote, the members vote must not be counted.
- The president is to preside as chairperson at a Board meeting.
- If there is no president or if the president is not present within 10 minutes after the time fixed for a Board meeting, the members may choose 1 of their number to preside as chairperson at the meeting.
- The Centre is committed to strong governance and ongoing training of Board members.
- Board members participate in Board skills evaluation and performance review on an annual basis.
