About the Legal Aid NT:

Legal Aid NT is an independent statutory authority established under the Legal Aid Act 1990 (NT). Our purpose is to ensure that people in the Northern Territory understand their legal rights and disadvantaged people have access to quality legal services, and to uphold a fair Northern Territory and national justice system.

About the role:

Under the supervision of the Associate Director of Crime, manage and coordinate the Parole Legal Service for prisoners, prioritising those with mental health conditions and / or cognitive impairments seeking parole.

About you:

You are a Solicitor with experience in legal practice working with disadvantaged and vulnerable clients. You will have a high level of initiative and the ability to work independently and collaboratively as part of a multidisciplinary team, effectively managing competing demands and complex matters to achieve results for disadvantaged and vulnerable clients.

Crucial to your success in this role is your high level interpersonal and communication and negotiation skills and demonstrated ability to liaise and communicate effectively with staff, external stakeholders, and clients with complex needs and from diverse backgrounds.

In this role, you will manage a caseload, provide advocacy, and prepare submissions on behalf of prisoners for consideration by the Parole Board. Working as part of a multidisciplinary team, you will collaborate closely with the Parole Planning Caseworker and Administrative Officer to deliver the Parole Legal Service and support clients through the parole process.

Employee benefits:

Legal Aid NT offers a competitive salary and a range of employee benefits, including:

- 6 weeks annual leave to support work life balance.
- Salary packaging options
- A supportive and collaborative workplace culture committed to meeting the legal needs of vulnerable people in the Northern Territory.

How to apply:

To apply, please submit the following to recruitment@legalaid.nt.gov.au by 10am Monday, 28 September 2026:

- A current CV
- A statement addressing the selection criteria (maximum 2 pages)
- Copies of your tertiary qualifications.

PLEASE NOTE: We encourage you to apply as soon as possible, as applications will be considered as they are received and the recruitment process may close earlier than advertised.

For a detailed duty statement, including selection criteria can be obtained from www.legalaid.nt.gov.au.

Further information on the role, please contact Human Resources on 08 8999 3000 or recruitment@legalaid.nt.gov.au

Legal Aid NT values diversity. We encourage people from all diversity groups to apply for vacancies and accommodate people with disability by making reasonable workplace adjustments.
